

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

THE First Evangelical Congregational Church formed in that part of the city of Cambridge usually called Cambridgeport, was gathered September 20, 1827. It consisted at its organization of forty-five members, most of whom, being residents of this place, had been previously connected with the Hanover Street Church, Boston, then under the pastoral care of Rev. Lyman Beecher, D. D.

A house of worship having been erected on Norfolk Street, it was solemnly dedicated to Almighty God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, on the day of the organization of the church. This house was built by subscription, and was held by the Deacons, in trust, for the use of the religious society worshipping in it, but subject, with certain restrictions, "to the ultimate and entire control of the church."

The first Pastor of the church, Rev. DAVID PERRY, was ordained April 23, 1829, and was dismissed at his own request, October 13, 1830. He was succeeded by Rev. WILLIAM AUGUSTUS STEARNS, who was ordained December 14, 1831, and continued his ministry till December 14, 1854, a period of twenty-three years; when the pastoral connection was dissolved, that he might accept the Presidency of Amherst College, to which he had been elected. The meeting-house was enlarged, to meet the wants of a growing society, in 1837, and again in 1840. The society being still incommoded for want of room, measures were subsequently taken for the erection of a new house of worship. Authority was obtained from the Supreme Court to sell the old house, with its furniture and appurtenances, and invest the proceeds in a new building, on conditions not inconsistent with the designs of the original donors. The additional stock necessary to carry this plan into operation having been subscribed for, the corner-stone of the new building, situated on Prospect Street, was laid, with appropriate religious services, on the 29th of July, 1851. The new meeting-house was dedicated on the afternoon of June 30, 1852. A sermon was preached on the occasion by the Pastor of the church, and Rev. Lyman Beecher, D. D., and Rev. Drs. Blagden and Adams, of Boston, took part in the exercises. The whole cost of the building, including land, furnishing, etc., was $24,500.

This property is held by the Deacons of the church, and their successors in office, in trust, from whom the several pew proprietors receive the conveyance, by deed, of their respective pews. Under this organization, when it becomes necessary to settle a Pastor or colleague, it is the right and privilege of the church to nominate, and of the pew-holders to concur or non-concur; and upon their non-concurrence, the church nominate anew, until the parties agree; whereupon a call is extended to the Pastor elect. During the temporary absence or sickness of the Pastor, the pulpit is supplied by the church; and during a vacancy of the pastoral office, by a joint committee of five, to be chosen, three by the church, and two by the pew-owners. All questions of taxation are decided by the pew-owners.

After the dismissal of the Rev. Dr. Stearns, in December, 1854, the church remained without a Pastor till July, 1856, when the Rev. EDWARD W. GILMAN, from Lockport, N. Y., having received and accepted a call from the church to become its Pastor, entered upon the duties of his office, and was publicly installed on the 9th of September following. Mr. Gilman's ministry was continued till the 22d of October, 1858, when the pastoral connection was dissolved.

He was succeeded by Rev. JAMES O. MURRAY, of South Danvers, who was installed on the 1st of May, 1861, and dismissed on the 6th of February, 1865. In 1867, Rev. KINSLEY TWINING, of New Haven, Conn., was invited to become the Pastor, and was installed on the 12th of September of that year.

ECCLESIASTICAL PRINCIPLES.

THE Christian Church is a union of all who are called and chosen through the Word and Spirit of God to be the possession of the Lord, who are united together by the public confession of a common faith in the Redeemer according to the command of Christ, and whose destination it is to promote each other's edification, and to coöperate towards the spread of their faith for the illumination, sanctification, and blessedness of mankind.

The Christian Church is in its essence an invisible society, held together by the invisible bond of the Holy Spirit, but visible in its manifestation, having an outward organization and polity, and distinguished by the presence of the Spirit in the hearts of its members, and by the ministration of the pure Word of Life and the Sacraments.

Any congregation of believers associating themselves together in this faith, and for these purposes, becomes, by the ordination of God and by the presence of the Holy Spirit, a Christian church complete in itself, independent and with jurisdiction over its own affairs.

The first church at Jerusalem formed itself in this way, according to the command of Christ, and in the power and bond of the Spirit. The other apostolic churches came into existence in the same manner.

The churches which walked in the ancient order of New England, founded their rights and their liberties on these principles. We have done the same, and organized an independent church on the "foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone" (Eph. ii. 20).

And while we are independent so far as relates to internal organization and to the administration of our local affairs, we mean to be governed in all matters of our own, and in those relating to other churches of our order, by the established principles of Congregational usage.

In common with other branches of the Christian Church, we believe that the Ministry is ordained of Christ, who "gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry" (Eph. iv. 11).

But we do not believe, as some do, that the power and authority of the church reside in the Ministry or flow through it, but that they belong to the church itself, and that the Ministry is given not to organize the brethren into a church, but to build them up as disciples, to secure an orderly ministration of the Word and of the Sacraments, and to be the natural head of the church in all its ministry.

STANDING RULES.

HE permanent officers of this church shall be a Pastor (or Pastors) and Deacons. The Pastor shall be ex-officio moderator of the church.

II. It shall be the duty of the Deacons to preside at the meetings of the church in the absence of the Pastor, to prepare for and assist in the celebration of the Lord's Supper, to attend to the necessities of the poor of the church, to receive and distribute the contributions for their relief, to provide a supply for the pulpit in the temporary absence of the Pastor, and generally to aid in the ministry of the church as occasion may require.

III. The Annual Meeting of the church shall be held on the first Wednesday in the month of January. Special Meetings of the church shall be called by the Standing Committee whenever they deem it advisable to do so, or whenever a written request to that effect is presented by six members of the church ; and public notice of the meeting shall be given from the pulpit on the previous Sabbath.

IV. The following officers shall be chosen by ballot at the Annual Meeting.

First, A Clerk, who shall keep the records of the church, a chronological list of its members, showing the time and mode of their admission and dismissal, a record of the adult and infant baptisms, and shall present at the Annual Meeting a list of those members who have been absent more than a year.

Second, A Treasurer, who shall take charge of all contributions for religious and charitable purposes (except such as are designed for the poor), and present a written report of the same at the Annual Meeting.

Third, An Auditor, who shall examine and audit the accounts of the Treasurer.

Fourth, A Standing Committee, to consist of nine persons, of which the Pastor, Deacons, and Clerk shall constitute a part ; whose duty it shall be to examine applicants for admission to the church, to act as a Committee of Inquiry in cases of discipline, to decide what benevolent objects shall be presented to the church for their contributions, and to exercise a general supervision over the interests of the church.

Fifth, A Superintendent of the Sabbath-school.

Vacancies in any of the above named offices occurring during the year, may be filled at any regular meeting of the church.

V. Candidates for admission to the church, having been approved by the Standing Committee, shall stand propounded to the church two weeks, and shall be received by vote of the church, on public profession of their faith ; and their names shall be read from the pulpit at least one week previous to their public admission.

VI. Members of this church changing their place of worship, shall request a letter of dismissal, and of recommendation to the church with which they worship, within one year from the time of such change, unless a reasonable excuse is given to the Church Committee for the omission.

VII. Members of other churches wishing to unite with this church by letter of transfer, will be received by vote of the church after having been approved by the Standing Committee and propounded to the church two weeks.

VIII. Members who may wish to transfer their connection to another church, shall make written application for a letter of dismission, through the Pastor or one of the Deacons, who shall lay the application before the church. It shall then be referred by rule to the Standing Committee, and lie over at least one week ; and if no objection is made, the Pastor, or Deacon presiding, is hereby authorized to declare the fact at the next Friday evening meeting, and to direct the Clerk to issue the usual letter of dismission, as by vote of the church. In case objection is made, the matter must be brought before the church for special vote. Letters of dismission shall be valid for one year only.

IX. It shall be the duty of any member of this church who may be personally aggrieved or offended by another, to seek first a reconciliation in the spirit of the Gospel by fraternal conference with the offending brother, in the manner set forth by our Saviour in the 18th chapter of the Gospel of St. Matthew. Should he fail to obtain satisfaction, he may bring the matter to the notice of the Standing Committee, or by a written complaint to the church. If the church entertain the complaint, a time shall be appointed for a hearing of the case, when the offending brother shall be summoned to be present. This course of proceeding shall be considered binding in all cases of private or personal difference between the members of this church. Immoral conduct, breach of express covenant vows, neglect of acknowledged religious duties, and avowed disbelief of the Articles of Faith of this church, shall be regarded as offenses subjecting the members implicated to the discipline of the church ; and in case of such public offenses, proceedings may be instituted on the written complaint of any member to the church, or through the agency of the Standing Committee. And if the church are satisfied of the guilt of the party accused, they may vote to suspend him from the privileges of the church, or to excommunicate him from its membership, as set forth by the Apostle Paul in the 5th chapter of the 1st Epistle to the Corinthians. But no member shall be deprived of the privileges of the church without a full and impartial hearing of his case.

X. The Lord's Supper shall be celebrated on the afternoons of the first Sabbaths of January, March, May, July, September, and November.

XI. This church recognizes the Sabbath-school as an important branch of its ministry, and in the exercise of a supervision of the school will require in the selection of teachers, that only those be appointed who are judged to give credible evidence of piety, of a good understanding of the Bible, and of a substantial agreement in the Articles of Doctrine professed by this church.

XII. The weekly prayer-meeting shall be held on Friday evening, and shall be considered a regular meeting at which business shall be transacted. But as a rule business shall be done after the close of the devotional exercises, and with the church apart by themselves ; provided, however, that delegates to conferences and ecclesiastical councils may be chosen, and such other business of a general character as a majority of the Standing Committee present shall approve may be done in open meeting, and before the congregation is dismissed.

XIII. In the transaction of business, only the adult male members shall be entitled to vote.

XIV. No alteration shall be made in the foregoing Rules unless at a regular meeting of the church (such alteration having been proposed at a previous regular meeting), and by a vote of two thirds of the members present and voting.

ARTICLES OF DOCTRINE.

[These Articles of Doctrine were adopted by the church at its organization, and have never been changed.]

ARTICLE I. We believe in the being of one God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost ; that God is a Spirit, infinite, eternal, and unchangeable in his being, power, knowledge, justice, goodness, and truth ; that he created all things ; that he preserves and governs all his creatures, and overrules their action according to the wise and benevolent counsel of his own will, yet in such a manner as that man is a free agent, and accountable for all his actions ; and that it is the duty of all intelligent creatures to love God with all the heart, and to worship him in spirit and truth.

ART. II. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are given by inspiration of God, and are a perfect rule of faith and practice.

ART. III. We believe that God created man holy, and that he fell from this happy state by sinning against God ; that, in consequence of the fall, mankind are born without holiness, and continue alienated from God, until renewed and reconciled by the special influence of the Holy Spirit.

ART. IV. We believe that God gave his Son to die for the sins of the world, and that Jesus Christ, by his sufferings and death, has made an atonement sufficient for the redemption of mankind ; so that now God can be just and the justifier of him that believeth, and that upon condition of repentance and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, pardon and eternal life are sincerely offered to all.

We believe that mankind do, of their own accord, most freely and most wickedly, refuse to comply with these conditions, to the aggravation of their guilt and condemnation ; but that God, notwithstanding he perceived how mankind would treat the Gospel of his Son, did always purpose to save from deserved ruin innumerable multitudes of the human race, through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth.

ART. V. We believe that without a change of heart wrought in the unregenerate by the special agency of the Holy Spirit, no one can be an heir of eternal life, and that the person who is once made a partaker of renewing grace, will never be permitted so to fall away as finally to perish, but will be inclined and enabled to persevere in faith and a holy life to the end.

ART. VI. We believe in the necessity of such repentance for sin as arises from supreme love to God ; and of such faith in Jesus Christ as includes an affectionate submission to him, and reliance upon him for pardon and eternal life.

ART. VII. We believe that men are dependent upon God to change their hearts and give repentance and faith, because they are voluntarily and obstinately opposed to their duty, and that the influence of the Holy Spirit is bestowed not as the reward of antecedent merit or well doing on the part of him who receives it, but as the free gift of God ; and that this influence of the Spirit is ordinarily so inseparably connected with the careful use of means by the sinner, as creates entire obligation and also ample encouragement to attend upon them, and renders all hopes of conversion in the neglect of means, or while living in sin, eminently presumptuous.

ART. VIII. Moreover, we believe that in this world, the Lord Jesus Christ has a visible church; that the terms of membership are a credible profession of faith in Christ and of that holiness which is wrought by the renewing grace of God; we also believe, that God has instituted Baptism, and the Lord's Supper, as ordinances to be observed in the church to the end of the world; and that none but members of the visible church have a right to partake of the Lord's Supper; and that believers only, and their households, can be admitted to the ordinance of Baptism.

ART. IX. We believe that at the death, and not before, the souls of believers are made perfectly holy, and do immediately pass into glory; and that the souls of the wicked do at death pass immediately to a state of punishment.

ART. X. We believe that at the end of the world, there will be a resurrection of the dead, when all mankind will give to God an account of their conduct, and be judged according to what they have done; that the righteous, publicly acquitted, will enter into life eternal; and that the wicked, publicly condemned, will go away into punishment that will never end.

FOR the sake of indicating the use which is to be made of the foregoing Articles of Doctrine, and of explaining their relation to the Shorter Confession of Faith embraced in the Form of Admission, this church have adopted the following minute: —

“ We might content ourselves as a church, with a simple declaration of our belief in the Scriptures as the Word of God and the Rule of Faith ; but those who hold fundamental errors profess the same belief. Hence it is necessary for us to declare what we believe the Scriptures to contain, and to agree upon a summary of the doctrines of the Bible as the basis of Christian fellowship.

“ That the world may know how we read the Scriptures, and especially that the youth and the unregenerate may have its great truths constantly before them, and that the brethren may refresh and confirm their own faith with the reading of them from time to time, we have adopted the foregoing articles of belief, and profess them as the faith of this church.

“ We expect that those who are young or weak in the faith will study them, ‘searching the Scriptures whether these things be so ;’ and that they will be the substantial expression of the teaching of the Pulpit, and of the Sunday-school, and of the personal faith of the brethren. But we do not require as a condition of membership that all who apply, especially those of tender years or of imperfect instruction, should fully avow or perfectly understand them. We feel bound to administer this church under the rule of Christ, and to receive to our communion those who, on personal examination, give credible evidence of faith and repentance, and of substantial agreement with us in the essentials of doctrine.

“ We have adopted also the following shorter Creed, to be used at the Communion Table and in the admission of members.

“ It is made short for the sake of convenience, and is designed to embrace only the essentials of the Gospel, and to express them, not in a theological manner, but in a more simple way, and rather in the spirit of worship than of doctrine.”

FORM OF ADMISSION.

* The candidates standing before the Pulpit, the minister shall first offer a short Prayer, after which he shall repeat one or more verses of Scripture, such as these, or any others which he may choose.

"He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me."

"He that taketh not his cross and followeth after me is not worthy of me."

"Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven."

The minister shall then invite the candidates to make Public Confession of Christ, reading or saying with him as follows:—

BELIEVE in one only living and true God: the Father Almighty, Creator and Ruler of all things; the Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who was in the beginning with God, and was God, who for our salvation became man, was crucified, dead, and buried. He rose from the dead, ascended to heaven, and now sitteth at the right hand of the Father, whence He shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to punish with everlasting destruction them that know not God, and that obey not the Gospel; of His kingdom there shall be no end.

And I believe in God the Holy Ghost, the Comforter and Sanctifier who spake in the Scriptures, through whom we have newness of life, and who with the Father and the Son together one God is worshipped and glorified.

* The part in fine print is inserted to suggest a form of orderly administration. It is not designed to be binding on any minister who prefers to use another form.

I believe in the forgiveness of sin through repentance, and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, whose name I confess, whose word I obey, and whose merit is my only trust.

And I believe in one Church of the redeemed on earth and in heaven, in one Baptism, and in one Communion of Saints in the body and blood of Christ, and I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Baptism will here be administered to candidates who have not been baptized, with these words : —

* ———, I baptize thee into the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. Amen.

† The minister shall then proceed : —

And now, ye beloved of the Lord, who have all witnessed to the confession of your faith and repentance before men, and who have all been baptized into the Christian name with the sprinkling of water, enter now into the Church of Christ, and into covenant obligations with us.

The minister and candidates repeat together : —

In the presence of God and this assembly you † now avow the Lord Jehovah, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, to be your God, the supreme object of your affection, and your portion forever. You cordially acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ to be your Redeemer, and the Holy Ghost to be your Sanctifier, Comforter, and Guide. You humbly and cheerfully devote yourselves to God in the covenant of grace, consecrating your powers and faculties to His service and glory, and you promise that with His assistance you will cleave to Him as your chief good, give diligent attention to His word and ordinances, seek the honor and interest of His kingdom, walk with this church in regular attendance on the means of grace, and in all brotherly love and submission, and that henceforth, denying ungodliness and worldly lust, you will live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world.

* The minister uses only the Christian names.

† Candidates use throughout the first person.

The members of the church rise ; the minister says in their name, —

We, then, members of this church, affectionately welcome you in the name of Christ to His discipleship, to a part with us in the blessings and promises of His covenant, to a share in the duties, privileges, and glories of His church, and to the fellowship of that great multitude which no man can number, who have confessed Him on earth, and who follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth.

And we likewise engage that through the help of Christ, without whom we also can do nothing, to walk towards you in all helpfulness, brotherly love, and watchfulness.

In token of our confidence and sympathy, take the hand of Fellowship, and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said : —

The minister here takes each new member in turn by the hand, repeating as he does so, some appropriate saying of our Lord.

The minister shall then address the new members, in these words of St. Paul : —

And now, beloved in the Lord, whereas in former time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world ; now, therefore, ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God ; and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief Corner-stone, in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord : in whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit. For this cause we bow our knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named ; that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man ; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith ; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend, with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height, and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge ; that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God.

Here all bow the head in prayer.

Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.
